EXAM BOARD
EDUQAS

A LEVEL ENGLISH LITERATURE

English Literature appeals to students who are passionate about reading, debating and interpreting texts from a range of historical periods.

YOU WILL STUDY

- Critical appreciation of literary texts, demonstrating close analysis of poetry, prose and drama through cogent, detailed essays
- Poetry written in the Victorian and modern age; Renaissance and twentieth century drama
- A substantial study of two novels post and pre-2000 forms your coursework investigation
- The unseen exam component develops you as a wider reader with extracts from works by Hardy, Wilde, Chopin and Conrad to name a few

ASSESSMENT

Three exams at the end of the second year (80%)

One piece of Coursework (20%)

YOU'LL LOVE...

Our extra-curricular programme includes theatre visits, trips to places of literary interest, university workshops and lectures as well as a student led Literature Society (Lit Soc) that involves discussion and personal response to new texts.
