I enjoyed my time at Carmel and was part of the High Achievers+ Programme. Tutors were ambitious for me and for others and helped us to achieve these goals through a network of multi-faceted support.

"Currently working as an educator on the Teach First programme, tackling inequality in schools in Merseyside. I graduated from Durham in 2023 with a first class degree and was a representative there for the 93% Club, an organisation formed to aid future outcomes for state-school students."
