Acting

Class of 2020 Alumni

I had a brilliant time at Carmel. My classes were full of great people who pushed me to reach my full potential.

"After Carmel, I studied at ALRA for three years doing an acting course. My experience at ALRA was great. We focused on theatre acting for the majority of the course, the first year being mostly technique, be it physical or vocal, with a few hours a week being spent in front, or behind a camera, learning screen technique and developing an understanding of a set. I really took to the accent classes we had, which led really nicely onto Audio classes, where we learnt techniques for radio, commercials, video games etc.

I'm now auditioning for jobs whilst living in London. I've worked with the BBC audio and recently finished voicing on an indie video game."
